register and check-in-out each day they recreate in a Training Area. Other activities not included here may be considered natural resources related if deemed appropriate to preclude wanton waste, as a safety consideration or to preclude the potential for illegal activity.

b. The term “recreationist” pertains to individuals engaging in natural resources related outdoor activities. Natural resources related activities include, but are not limited to fuelwood cutting, hunting, fishing, trapping, bird watching, mushroom hunting, hiking, bicycling, scouting, searching for shed antlers, gathering fruits or vegetation, etc.

1-6. APPLICABILITY. This regulation is applicable to all persons engaging in recreational activities on the Fort Riley Military Reservation.

1-7. SUPPLEMENTATION. Local supplementation of this regulation is prohibited except upon approval of the DPW.

CHAPTER 2

NOTICE OF PUNITIVE REGULATIONS

2-1. NOTICE. The provisions of this regulation are punitive. Violations of applicable Federal or Kansas law or the provisions of this regulation will be processed as follows:

CHAPTER 3

ADMINISTRATION

a. Fort Riley Permit fee funds will be managed by the Conservation Branch, DPW, for management, protection and conservation of fish and wildlife in accordance with Department of Defense (DOD) and Department of the Army (DA) regulations and as stated in the installation's Integrated Natural Resources Management Plan (INRMP), and for no other purpose.

b. The cost of a Fort Riley Hunting Access Permit, sold through the Fort Riley iSportsman webpage (<https://fortriley.isportsman.net>), is currently $25. Additional permit fees or application fees for lottery drawings such as those for white-tailed deer, turkey and elk, may be required due to high permit demand. An administrative charge not exceeding 10 percent of the cost of the permit may be added by the authorized license vendor to the cost of the permit. Permit fees may be changed at any time by approval of the Fort Riley Garrison Commander.

3-2. USE OF NATURAL RESOURCES. Opportunities for recreational use of natural resources will be available to all eligible persons within quotas established by the Conservation Branch. The Federal Government is not responsible for any injuries or liabilities incurred by any person while engaging in outdoor recreational activities on the installation. All persons indicate knowledge of this fact when they enter the installation to engage in approved outdoor recreational activities on Fort Riley.

3-3. NATURAL RESOURCES REGULATIONS. The Conservation Branch will prepare all regulations concerning natural resources management on Fort Riley, coordinate with the SJA; and, as applicable, the DES, DPTMS, DFMWR, ISO, and Veterinary Services (MEDDAC).

3-4. DISPOSITION OF DEAD WILDLIFE.

a. Road-Killed Animals. Road-killed animals will be disposed of by the DPW, unless requested otherwise by the Conservation Branch, or as follows:

(1) As provided by Kansas law, turkey, deer or elk that are road-killed may, at the discretion of the DES, be given to the person driving the vehicle if the driver wants the animal.

(2) At the discretion of the investigating officer, the animal may be signed over to individuals listed on the road-kill list.

(3) For management information or educational purposes, the Conservation Branch, may request the removal and transfer of portions of road killed wildlife, such as teeth, scales and embryos.

b. Disposition of antlers. Individuals finding carcasses of deer or elk on Fort Riley and wishing to retain the antlers must obtain a Kansas Salvage Tag for the antlers. Salvage tags must be issued if antlers are attached to the skull. Only a Fort Riley Game Warden may issue salvage tags for salvaged antlers found on Fort Riley. The Game Warden has the discretion not to issue a salvage tag if circumstances of the find are deemed suspicious; or, if there is a viable law enforcement or educational use for the antlers. This regulation does not apply to naturally shed antlers, which are antlers that when found are not attached to any portion of a skull. However, naturally shed antlers found by civilian employees of Fort Riley while they are on official duty time may not be sold or removed from Fort Riley.

3-5. SPECIAL COLLECTION REQUIREMENTS. As a condition to hunting, fishing and or fur harvesting on Fort Riley, recreationists may be required to provide all or part of their game or fish to be examined for research purposes. Samples of tissues and/or fluids may be taken by representatives of the Conservation Branch, the Game Wardens, or Fort Riley Veterinary Services, for developing information to improve conservation management, disease control or other official purposes. The taking of samples of consumable portions of fish and game will normally not significantly reduce the volume of edible tissue. Failure to provide fish or game for examination, when requested, will be grounds for revocation of hunting, fishing or fur harvesting privileges and other action as provided for by statute or regulation.
